DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

Claims 51-53 of this application conflict with claims 77-79 of Application No. 10/618,441. 37 CFR 1.78(b) provides that when two or more applications filed by the same applicant contain conflicting claims, elimination of such claims from all but one application may be required in the absence of good and sufficient reason for their retention during pendency in more than one application. Applicant is required to either cancel the conflicting claims from all but one application or maintain a clear line of demarcation between the applications. See MPEP § 822.

A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

Claims 51-51 provisionally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 77-79 of copending Application No. 10/618,441. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 10, 15, 16, 25, 56 and 57 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 74-76 of copending Application No. 10/618,441. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claim 74 contains obvious variations of the features of claims 10, 15, 16 and 25. Claims 75 and 76 contain equivalent lead features.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

Claims 1-3, 7-20, 26, 31-44 and 50-57 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Mlynash et al '075.

Mlynash et al discloses aligning an arrhythmia signal and a QRST template and calculating cross-correlation coefficients. See col. 10, line 64 to col. 11, line 33.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1, 2, 7, 8 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Groenewegen '860.

Groenewegen discloses capturing a first ECG signal comprising receiving a heart signal 4. It is inherent a beginning and end point are marked on the captured ECG signal to allow computation of integral maps 8. Correlation coefficients 10 are used to quantify data. One of ordinary skill in the art would have found it obvious to identify a best fit between the reference template and acquired data because Groenewegen teaches that each QRS complex that does not have an adequate correlation is excluded. See col.5, line 59 to col.6, line 6. Further support is provided by claims 22 and 48.

Art Unit: 3762

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 4-6, 21-24, 27-30 and 45-49 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
